

I agree with the request to amend the Commission's Rules to remove Morse Code Requirements from all Amateur Service License Classes. Morse Code had its place years ago, but is now out-dated and should no longer be required.